DON'T HAVE TO TELL.

A suit was filed at Bowling Green, Monday by R. E. Jones vs. members of the Democratic State Executive Committee enjoining them from enforcing the rule requiring a voter to state he had voted for the Democratic nominee for Congress before he would be allowed to vote in the primary.
The suit also declares against nominating a United States Senator at a primary election.

Immediately following the filing of the suit, the Committee met in Louisville, rescinded their ruling in regard to requiring a voter to state that he had voted for the Democratic nominee for Congress and substituted the following clause in the place of the ruling requiring the statement from the voter as mentioned above:

"Resolved, That all known Democrats who will be legal voters on the 6th day of November, 1906, who have registered as Democrats in precincts where registration is required by law, and who shall have first voted in the general election held upon said day for a member of Congress, shall be entitled to vote in said primary."

This hasty action of the committee plainly shows that the members were fully aware, when they made the former ruling, it was contrary to law and an open violation of the constitution of the State. But the Machine cares nothing for law or constitution as long as their methods are not questioned. However, the people have grown tired of corruption at the polls and in public office. The death knell of machine politics has been sounded in Kentucky. On November 6th, the once powerful

Extending New Road.

The Clearfield Lumber Co., of Clearfield, Pa., is pushing the work on the West Liberty and Morehead railroad, which they recently purchased, and have 300 men at work on the road. Since beginning work on the road three miles out from Morehead the workmen have cut through two big hills and are moving rapidly ahead. There has now been graded and ready for ties about twelve or fifteen miles of the road, and tracklaying is going on. The work will be pushed very fast and the contractors hope to have the road completed to Bud Brown's, in Morgan county, by January 1st.
The Clearfield Lumber Company owns about 17,000 acres of timberlands at the terminus of the road, and it is not known whether the line will be built on to West Liberty, a distance of ten miles, now or not.

Stop with Hart Bros., at Reed when in Lexington.

JUST AS TEMPERATE.

In one of his recent speeches, Gov. Beckham is credited with saying: "I am just as temperate as Senator McCreary." It was, indeed, a surprise for us to hear such words from the Governor.
In that sentence he recognizes his need of defending his own personal record, and, more than that, he only attempts to appear on the same moral level with Senator Mc-Creary. He, who is standing on his record for temperance and appealing for the Christian vote of the State, to only claim to be as temperate as the man, who he claims represents the whisky interests. This is the highest compliment paid to Senator McCreary's personal record since the opening of the campaign.

But is Governor Beckham as temperate as Senator McCreary?
No one but one's self knows just how temperate one is. Gov. Beckham does not know how much alcoholic beverages Senator Mc-Creary consumes, if any, and no one knows how much the Governor consumes. We have but one method of judging—by appearances and reports. Senator Mc-Creary is an old man compared to Gov. Beckham, but he is a picture of health and vigor. The most of our readers have seen Gov. Beckham. If he is as temperate as Senator McCreary he does not show evidences of it.

Having received notice that we must give up the building that we now occupy, we will continue to slaughter the prices on our goods until January 1st, 1907, at which time we must vacate our present stand. Come and take advantage of this opportunity.

Respectfully yours,
NOBLE & NOBLE.

News both one year for $1.50.

Water Superstitions.

Superstitions having to do with water are difficult to eradicate. What possible connection can the rise or fall of water have with the duration of human life? Yet when Dickens tells of the death of the child in "David Copperfield"—"It being low water, he went out with the tide"—then the old superstition finds its pathetic revival.
